Harris Interviews Woodstockers Day Following Petition

Rural Education Director Asks Attitude Toward 3-Town School Plan; Pay Visit to Griffin

Woodstock, June 10—Immediate official action on the part of the State Education Department has followed quickly the presentation of a petition by Woodstock dissenters from the three-town plan for school centralization.

It was reported this morning that a Mr. Harris, Rural Education Director, was in Woodstock this morning interviewing prominent citizens on the township's position regarding school centralization with Olive and Shandaken. The petition by opponents of the plan was drafted last week and asked Education Commissioner Francis Spaulding to exclude Woodstock from the centralization program. If three townships were to be involved, this petition was delivered in Albany Monday to Dr. Francis Griffin.

Another petition by proponents of the three-town plan was signed by many Woodstock, Olive and Shandaken residents and asked that the state set a date for balloting on the proposition. It was reported that Dr. Griffin held a conference Monday with Reinald Bennett, district school superintendent, Lester Shults and Mrs. Mabel Weidner, backers of the three-town plan. It is thought an election date was discussed, but no announcement has been made.

Woodstock opponents were elated today by Mr. Harris' visit to the township, since it is felt the petition delivered Monday has gained official recognition.

An unofficial report last week that the main supply base of the River Division, New York Central Railroad, would be closed, was confirmed today by R. J. Hoban, division storekeeper at the local building, who said that June 15 had been given as the closing date.

Hoban, who has been at the local storehouse in the North Yard of the West Shore Railroad, off Albany avenue extension for 14 years, said that he will take over as district storekeeper at Beacon which will service the New York Central lines on both sides of the river for the entire region.

Most of the 10 men employed at the local storehouse, Hoban said, have been assured of positions elsewhere, and many have received notice of better positions. The men were eligible to bid in for jobs at other points along both river divisions of the railroad.

Hungarian Reds Widen Purge, Take Resistance Papers

Priests, Titled, Professional Folk Among Those Who May Lose Their Certificates

London, June 10 (AP)—Dispatches from Budapest suggested today that the Communist-dominated Hungarian government was widening its purge against dissident elements on several fronts. The Communist newspaper Szabadseg said the "resistance certificates" of nearly 200 persons, including government and church officials, would be reviewed by a special committee under the prime minister's office.

Among those facing loss of these certificates—which indicate that the holders opposed the Germans during the war—were Jozsef Sutvok, head of the President's party whose newspaper recently was banned; Assembly Speaker Bela Varga, a member of the Smallholders' party; and Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate of Hungary.

Others facing possible loss of their lands if the certificates should decide they did not work against the Nazis, Szabadseg said, were Lajos Shvoy, Catholic Bishop of Szekesfehervar; Count Geza Teleki, former minister of education; and Bela Pedeny-Gulyas, head of the Smallholder party's political committee.

At the same time, the Hungarian People's Court announced that 43 "intellectuals"—including doctors, lawyers and professors—would go on trial late this month on charges of conspiring to overthrow the Hungarian republic.

The newspaper Vilag said Albert Szent-Gyorgyi, a Nobel Prize winner for Vitamin C research, had recommended the expulsion of 12 scientists from the Hungarian Academy of Science on the ground they were "reactionaries."

Sizeable Number of Political Writers Will Make Tour, However; Will Attend Salt Lake Conference

Albany, N. Y., June 10 (AP)—Governor Dewey, a prospective candidate for the 1948 Republican presidential nomination, declared today he would not accept speaking invitations and had no plans to confer with party leaders on his western trip next month.

The four-week tour, beginning July 4, has been heralded widely by political observers as part of a Dewey drive to line up delegates for himself at the G.O.P. convention next year.

In an apparent effort to counteract that impression, Dewey said a news conference that it would be confined to attendance at the annual governors' conference in Salt Lake, visits to relatives and family, "sight-seeing."

Nevertheless, the Governor, Mrs. Dewey and their sons, Thomas E. Jr., 14, and John, 11, will be accompanied by a sizeable number of political writers.

"I have declined all speaking engagements," Dewey said, "and I do not expect to make any speeches on the trip, which will be devoted to the work of the Governors' Conference and the rest of the time with my family."

An aide disclosed that Dewey had received more than 200 invitations to speak since the trip was announced several weeks ago.

En route west the Deweys will visit Mrs. Dewey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Hunt, at Sapulpa, Okla. On the way back late in July they will spend a few days with the governor's mother, Mrs. George M. Dewey, at Owosso, Mich.

To Visit Yellowstone
The itinerary includes visits to Yellowstone Park in Wyoming, the Grand Teton, Jackson Hole and other places in the mountain states.

Dewey, a member of the Governor's Conference Executive Committee, will preside at a forum on taxation and finance during the four-day session, July 13-16.

Asked if he intended meeting party leaders, other than at the conference, Dewey said he had no such plans.

The 4,000-mile trip will come about three weeks after Dewey's meetings with Governor Earl Warren of California and former Governor Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota.

Dewey conferred last week with both. They have been mentioned as possible rivals for the nomination and also as potential vice-presidential nominees on a ticket headed by Dewey.

The Dewey party will leave Albany July 4 and arrive at Sapulpa two days later. They will go to Kansas City July 9, where the governor said, he hopes to see a baseball game. They will leave the next day for Salt Lake City and arrive July 12.

Dewey said that following their departure July 16 for Yellowstone Park the schedule still was incomplete but that they would arrive in Owosso about July 27. While there, Dewey said, he planned to visit nearby Ann Arbor to show his sons the University of Michigan, of which the governor is a graduate.

On the call of the criminal calendar, Chris J. Flanagan announced he would be ready in the Lindsey Wade manslaughter case and the trial was tentatively set down for June 18 at 10 o'clock.

The William H. Ferguson case was moved over to next November by Joseph Avis. Ferguson is charged with violation of Section 583-b.

Bill Approved Would Free Sugar

Washington, June 10 (AP)—The House Banking Committee approved today a measure to end sugar rationing for home consumption.

Chairman Wolcott (R-Mich.) said that the decision was by an "overwhelming" vote although not unanimous.

The bill was introduced by Rep. Gamble (R-N.Y.). It would have no effect upon price control of sugar, nor would it directly affect rationing of sugar for industrial use.

Under the present law, rationing of sugar would expire October 31. However, the existing statute authorizes the secretary of agriculture to continue inventory control of sugar until March 31 if he deems it necessary.

Wolcott said that he has assurance of House action on the bill within the next two or three days.

Kinch Suspended Three Days; Boss Charges Sleeping

Patrolman to Fight Order on Basis of Illness; Request for Leave of Absence

Local patrolman Howard A. Kinch was suspended from duty for three days by Chief of Police Ernest A. Boss this morning on a charge that he was sleeping on post.

The suspension, Chief Boss said, was ordered pending action of the Board of Police Commissioners. Officer Kinch was given notice, the chief reported, shortly after midnight Monday.

The chief indicated that the order of suspension was given on a temporary basis until such time as the police board acts upon the charge that the officer had disobeyed department orders.

It was reported unofficially that Officer Kinch will contest the suspension order on the basis that he had been ill and had asked for a leave of absence. He has secured Attorney Chris J. Flanagan to represent him at a hearing on the charge.

The Dewey party will leave Albany July 4 and arrive at Sapulpa two days later. They will go to Kansas City July 9, where the governor said, he hopes to see a baseball game. They will leave the next day for Salt Lake City and arrive July 12.

Dewey said that following their departure July 16 for Yellowstone Park the schedule still was incomplete but that they would arrive in Owosso about July 27.

Army Says Surplus Is Being Held

Bridges Says Redemption Is Being Carried On as Hidden Deficit in Name of U. S.

Reds Have Plates Russians Can Print Money but U. S. Can't Learn How Much

Washington, June 10 (AP)—Three Republican senators called today for a full-scale investigation into reports that the United States has redeemed millions of dollars worth of German occupation money printed by Russian authorities.

The three lawmakers—Bridges of New Hampshire, Ferguson of Michigan and Knowland of California—told a reporter in separate interviews that they understood the plates to print the German marks were given to the Russians by American officials.

Among other uses for the occupation money was to pay Allied troops.

Earlier reports have said that the Russian soldiers—drawing large amounts of back pay—paid fabulous black market prices to American G.I.s for such items as wrist watches and trinkets.

The G.I.s, in turn, converted the occupation marks into dollars.

The trade became so brisk that American authorities resorted to several methods for discouraging the marks-to-dollars conversion. Finally a script system was devised to replace the occupation currency.

A War Department statement on April 21, prompted by reports that the loss to the treasury on these black market dealings might exceed $500,000,000, acknowledged that the army has accumulated a surplus of German dollars.

"The present holding does not, however, exceed future contemplated expenditures," the statement said, adding:

"A complete report on the acquisition and disposal of these holdings is presently being prepared for the information of the appropriate committees of Congress."

Not Seen on Capitol Hill
No such report has come to light on Capitol Hill.

Bridges, chairman of the Senate Appropriations Committee, said "any information is that between $100,000,000 and $500,000,000 worth of this money has been, or is being, redeemed with American dollars."

"I have been told that this redemption is being carried as a hidden deficit and some Senate committee certainly must look into this," he added.

Ferguson, a member of the Senate special war investigating committee, said he had been unable "to get all the facts regarding this from either the War Department or the Treasury."

"We did learn that the plates to print this invasion money were turned over to the Russians," Ferguson said, "but we have not been able to learn how much money was made, how it was distributed and how much is to be redeemed."

Knowland, a member of both the war investigating and appropriations committees and a former World War I army officer, said: "I think the public is entitled to know just how much of this money has gotten into our mills."

Couldn't Learn Facts
Knowland said he had tried in vain to learn the facts as a member of the war investigating committee but both he and Ferguson said the limited scope granted to the special committee when its life was extended earlier this year prevented following through.

Bridges, however, said the appropriations committee or any of several other regular committees possess ample authority to make a full scale investigation, provided the Senate approves.

Bridges summarized his information on the reported transactions as follows:

"At the Yalta Conference Presi-

Two Will Receive Sentences June 16

Corrigan and Wells Found Guilty of Conspiracy to Defraud

New York, June 10 (AP)—Former Navy Commander John D. Corrigan and Robert H. Wells, president of Corrigan, Osburne and Wells, industrial engineering firm, will be sentenced in Federal Court June 16 for conspiracy to defraud the government of Corrigan's impartial services. The two men and the New York city firm were convicted late yesterday by a jury. The conviction carries possible sentences of two years and fines up to $10,000. Retired after a former jury reached a deadlock last December 6, resulting in a mistrial, the two men were accused of conspiring to use Corrigan's war-time position as an inspector of war plants for the Naval Bureau of Ordnance to divert business to the engineering firm.

The government contended that Corrigan, a graduate of the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis, had threatened war manufacturers with adverse production reports to the bureau unless they utilized the services of his firm. Corrigan, Wells and the firm were indicted also on charges of conspiring to defraud the bomb-sight manufacturing program by having the then commander favor the Norden Company over other firms licensed to manufacture the Norden bombsight. Carl L. Norden, Inc.; T. H. Barth, its president, and the late Ward S. Marvello, its vice president, also were named in this indictment. No trial date has been set.

Twenty witnesses, at a hearing before Industrial Commissioner Edward Corsi yesterday, opposed the proposed wage recommended by the State Minimum Wage Board. One witness supported it.

The present $16.50 weekly minimum, with compulsory commissions, was favored by several shop owners who said the higher rates would force marginal shops to reduce help.

Letters to the Editor

Letters to The Editor must bear the name of the writer. Communications must be free of libel and personal attacks upon individuals as such. Only original communications addressed to The Freeman will be printed.

100 McEntee street Kingston, N. Y. June 9, 1947.

Editor, The Freeman:

The American Labor Party of Ulster County has the following to say of a letter from Congressman Jay LeFevre contained in your newspaper last week.

Mr. LeFevre protests too much when he objects to what he calls "pressure groups" when he refers to an organized campaign of sending printed postcards asking him to help defeat the Taft-Hartley labor bill. Let me remind our congressman that the National Association of Manufacturers was one of the "pressure groups" that influenced the passage of that bill. Let me also remind our congressman that it is a prerogative of his constituents to write to him to make their wishes and demands known. Whether it is organized or on an individual basis is their own business. Mr. LeFevre has been long enough in public life to know this.

Mr. LeFevre then becomes brash enough to call the infamous Taft-Hartley Bill the "Workers' Bill of Rights." He is aware that all of organized labor is against this bill that voids the closed shop and cranks back injurious law. We of labor remember too well the Chicago massacre of Republic Steel and the labor spy-system of Henry Ford. It was only during Franklin Delano Roosevelt's administration that labor received its "Workers' Bill of Rights," the Wagner Act. Also through F.D.R.'s leadership came the Norris-LaGuardia Act which removed the threat of injunction against labor and put labor relations on the basis of equality. The laboring men and women of Kingston will not forget Mr. LeFevre's support of the Taft-Hartley anti-labor bill.

Our congressman closes by stating that Congress, in passing this bill, was delivering the wishes of the people. He certainly did not mean the fourteen millions of organized labor, or the millions of unorganized labor whose gains depend on conditions won by organized labor. These are not the people Mr. LeFevre had in mind. The N.A.M. Chambers of Commerce and union busting employers were the people our congressman thought of.

The American Labor Party declares that it is of utmost importance that the people of Kingston and Ulster county write or wire President Truman to veto the Taft-Hartley Bill.

Yours very truly,

MORRIS R. FRIEDMAN,

Chairman, American Labor Party of Ulster county.

Gilligan Prefers To Let Plunket Do Talking on Matter

Resigned Democratic Town Leader of Woodstock Won't Divulge Message

No action has been taken by the Democratic County Committee on the recent resignation of Edmund Gilligan, Bearsville, novelist, who submitted his resignation as one of the Democratic county committeemen from the town of Woodstock following a meeting in Woodstock on the three-township school centralization plan.

County Chairman Thomas J. Plunket said the matter would be acted upon at the next meeting of the executive committee.

Gilligan submitted his resignation to County Chairman Plunket following a meeting on the centralization plan which was held in Woodstock on May 20. Gilligan said he had resigned as Democratic committeeman because of what he considered "irregularities" at the Woodstock school meeting. Gilligan is an ardent supporter of the three-town centralization plan.

It was learned that Mr. Gilligan had received a letter from Chairman Plunket, but Mr. Gilligan refused to divulge its contents. "I would prefer to have any further statement come from Mr. Plunket," Mr. Gilligan said.

Jubilee Reception Is Held on Sunday For Father Nolan

The Silver Jubilee of his ordination to the holy priesthood was observed on Sunday by the Rev. Phillip J. Nolan, pastor of St. John's Church, West Hurley. Father Nolan was celebrant of a solemn Mass of thanksgiving at 11 o'clock in the parish church. He was assisted by the Rev. James Breen, C.S.R., of Mount St. Alphonsus as deacon and the Rev. Austin V. Carey, chaplain of the Benedictine Hospital, as subdeacon. The sermon was preached by the Very Rev. Monsignor John D. McGowan, pastor of the Church of the Resurrection, Rye, N. Y. The Very Rev. Monsignor Martin J. Drury, dean of Ulster and Sullivan counties, presided and the music of the Mass was sung by a choir of seminarians from Mount St. Alphonsus.

The Mass was followed by a testimonial dinner in honor of Father Nolan at the Governor Clinton Hotel. J. Frank Lynett of Zena, chairman of the jubilee committee presided, and the Rev. Father Carey was toastmaster. Monsignor Drury, speaking for the clergy of the archdiocese expressed the congratulations and good wishes of his fellow priests and lauded Father Nolan's years of fruitful work in the ministry. Justice Charles J. Garrison of the Municipal Court of New York, spoke in behalf of the parishioners of St. John's and Edmund Borgin Butler, lately chairman of the New York City Housing Authority, spoke on behalf of Father Nolan's friends. Father Nolan then expressed his gratitude to God for all His blessings through the years of his priesthood and thanked his parishioners for the tribute paid him and for their cooperation in his pastoral work. A substantial sum of money subscribed by parishioners and friends was presented to the jubilee by Father Carey.

Victor H. Dardenne, chairman of the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, accompanied by Mrs. Dardenne, presented several violin solos, concluding with Charles Gounod's "Ave Maria," which, at Mr. Dardenne's request, was sung by all present.

Among the guests on the dais were the Right Rev. Monsignor Stephen P. Connelly and the Rev. Fathers James P. Heaton, John Dunn, M.S., John F. Kelly, John J. Caldwell of Millbrook, a classmate of Father Nolan, and Edmund L. Cain of Huntington, Pa.

Mrs. Bagley Will Speak at Saugerties On Cerebral Palsy

A meeting of the Saugerties Child Study Club will be held Thursday evening, 8 p. m., at the Homemaking House on Washington avenue, when Mrs. John Bagley, of Catskill, a member of the Cerebral Palsy Association of the Capital District, will read a discussion based on a recent article in "Parents" magazine entitled "Health Is What You Make It."

Mrs. Bagley, the wife of a Catskill attorney, wrote the aforementioned story revolving around the experiences of their daughter, Helen, who has been a victim of cerebral palsy for more than a decade. Following the publication of her article, numerous letters came in with requests from people in similar circumstances who wanted enlightenment and advice from one who had experienced the same problems.

Mrs. Bagley, a law student at Cornell University before she met her husband, has lived in Catskill since her marriage, where she has taken active part in organizing the Cerebral Palsy Association—and various other local public health committees and civic affairs.

All interested persons are urged to attend the June 12 meeting, and to inform parents of cerebral palsy victims in the area that they are invited.

Hungry Europe Awaits Harvest

Map portrays current food situation in 18 European countries according to a United Press survey. Germany, Poland, Italy, and Austria are going hungry through spring and summer awaiting fall harvest. This also applies to some areas in France. Remaining 13 nations are adequately, though monotonously, fed. A good harvest will find all eating a better diet, while a poor harvest will mean disaster next winter.

Will Sell Housing Bonds

Albany, N. Y., June 10 (AP)—A $28,175,000 issue of 50-year serial bonds to finance housing projects in New York city and Utica will be offered for sale by the state June 17. State Comptroller Frank C. Moore, announcing plans for the issue yesterday, said $27,000,000 would be used for New York city projects and the remainder would go to Utica. The projects, he added, either had been completed or were nearly finished. As the bonds mature, Moore said, the said will be repaid, with interest, by the local housing authorities. The bonds, to be dated June 18, 1947, will mature at a rate of $375,000 annually from 1949 through 1997.

Favors City Lottery

New York, June 10 (AP)—City Councilman Joseph T. Sharkey says that a $100,000,000 lottery, with banks selling the tickets, should provide the money the city needs for hospital construction and rehabilitation. Sharkey, who is council vice chairman and leader of its Democratic majority, said last night he planned to introduce the lottery proposal June 17. The resolution would require approval by two successive legislatures and a public referendum. Three lotteries would be run during one year, then discontinued after that.

Leaves From Boyle's Notebook

By HAL BOYLE

Los Angeles, (AP)—There is a traffic jam in Paradise—known on the map as Southern California. The quickest way to bring terror into the face of a Californian is to say: "My, this is a lovely country. I think I'll settle down here."

He will give you a pained look of utter dismay. For he has all the neighbors he wants now—more than he wants. He would like to censor Horace Greeley's advice: "Go west, young men." He doesn't want to hear anybody say, "California, here I come!"

He has come to the conclusion California has over-sold the rest of America on the virtues of the balmy life here. That life is getting less heavenly every day as thousands of outlanders arrive to set up housekeeping.

"The whole country seems to want to move here," complained one resident. "They've crowded everything out but the climate."

"A lot of people think they can come out here and live free in an orange grove if they don't find work. But those days are gone. If they try that now they'll find themselves full of buckshot. You can't pick oranges for nothing any more."

Chambers of commerce and local booster societies may take pride in California's great post-war growth. But the average citizen, harassed by increasing housing shortages and rising prices, would like to put a fence around the state with "keep out" signs to discourage prospective settlers.

This attitude is particularly strong among new arrivals. As soon as they find a job and a place to park the baby buggy, they join in the chorus:

"What do we want any more people out here for? We're crowded enough already!"

Not So Loud

Families here a generation or two don't holler so loud. They simply remark:

"The old California died the day the movie industry came."

All southern Californians—new or old—just take it for granted now that the east coast is going downhill and that here is the future arena of American population and power.

"In another ten years the Los Angeles area will have ten million people," they say with dismal conviction, "and in ten years more it will be the biggest city the world has ever seen."

The prospect makes them unhappy rather than proud. The city is growing so fast people complain they can't move out of it. One man bought a country acre out in San Fernando Valley a year ago.

"I'm twenty-two miles from city hall," he said, "and already they're talking of putting sidewalks in front of my place. I don't want them. I moved out here to get away from sidewalks and stoplights."

The chief objection most residents have here to further "colonization" is that it boosts the cost of living.

"It is used to be one of the cheapest areas in the United States to live in," one said. "Now it is one of the highest."

"For example, seven years ago my wife could get two heads of lettuce for a nickel. Now one costs her eighteen cents. That's typical of how things have gone up."

That same high cost of living has caused many people who came out here to establish homes to give up after a few weeks or months and go back where they came from. They found too much trouble in paradise.

Recently one rattling jalopy passed through town with its battered radiator pointed east. It held six children and three adults. A baby buggy and washtub were strapped on its roof. Gunny sacks full of clothes and household belongings were roped to the fenders. On the rear of the jalopy was scrawled this defiant sign:

"Goodbye California — and all your god darn geraniums!"

Readers Service

Careful Sunning is Good for Your Baby

The sun is one of your baby's best friends. It helps him build straight bones, strong muscles and sound teeth. But be careful not to overdo a good thing. The baby's skin is delicate, and even a few extra minutes of sunshine may result in painful burning.

Start by exposing only his arms and legs for a short time. As the days go on, you can gradually increase the time that baby stays in the sun and the amount of his body that is exposed. Slight reddening and tanning will show you that he is benefiting from the sunshine, but not all babies tan.

Be sure the baby's eyes are protected during sunbaths. If he lies with his feet away from the sun and his head slightly raised, the eyes will be shaded by his forehead and eyelids.

Want to rear a healthy, happy baby? Our Reader Service booklet No. 203 can help you. Advice on feeding, bathing, toilet-training, illness—from birth to 1 year. Based on findings of doctors, nurses, nutritionists.

Jinnah Asks His Countrymen Carry Out Plan Quietly

Plea, However, Followed by Moslem Invasion of Meeting; Plan Is Accepted

New Delhi, June 10 (AP)—Mahomed Ali Jinnah, president of the Moslem League, appealed to Indians today to carry out peacefully the British plan for separating the subcontinent into the countries of Hindustan and Pakistan.

The Moslem League Council formally accepted the plan last night. Five minutes after the council resolution was passed, a band of radical, dissident Moslems invaded the meeting, armed with shovels and knives. The disorder was controlled by police firing muskets and tear bombs.

Pakistan, the Moslem state, will have approximately 70,000,000 inhabitants, the overwhelming majority of whom will be Moslems. It will be divided into two parts, one in Eastern India and another in the northwest.

The League Council, accepting the partition plan, granted Jinnah full power to negotiate for inclusion of all Bengal and all Punjab in Pakistan. Both states would be split under the independence plan, with Hindu parts, including the great Bengal port of Calcutta, going to Hindustan. It appeared clear that even though Jinnah failed to secure all Bengal and the Punjab, the plan would still be approved.

The Moslem League working committee will meet with Jinnah tonight to decide which of the major cities in Pakistan will be the national capital. The chances were that Lahore would be chosen because of its central location in the biggest part of Pakistan, the northwest section.

The League also decided who would head Pakistan, which will first become a dominion in August when the British withdraw. No name but that of Jinnah was mentioned.

Outlines His Hopes

Jinnah outlined in an interview his hopes for peaceful transfer of power from the British to Pakistan and Hindustan.

We want this plan carried out peacefully," he said, "and the division of India should be effected in the most equitable and fair manner."

"If we approach the separation in that spirit and with sincerity, as we should as two great honorable peoples, and if the leadership will proceed in that spirit, it will not only accelerate the partition of India, but we shall pay as friends. We shall be full of hope that we shall remain friends as two great, neighboring and independent states."

Even the Hindu leader, Mohandas K. Gandhi, a bitter opponent of the division, said the people of the country evidently were agreeable to partition as a means of ending discord.

Singh Is Quoted

Master Tara Singh, veteran Sikh minority leader, was quoted in The Daily Tribune of Lahore as saying he "could not welcome" the plan, but that he was not in favor of boycotting it.

Violence continued in parts of India. At least 32 were reported killed in the Pilibhit district of the Central United Provinces in a communal riot. An India News Chronicle correspondent telegraphed that Moslems attacked a Hindu family and that Hindus retaliated against a Moslem wedding party. The riot spread over several villages. Police and troops restored order.

A cyclist in Lahore threw a bomb at a horse cart, killing a man and injuring six others. A gardener was stabbed to death in the famous Lawrence gardens.

Treaty Is Approved

Washington, June 10 (AP)—The Senate Foreign Relations Committee approved today a treaty for international regulation of narcotics, signed at Lake Success, N. Y., last December 11.

The order is directed to the members of the local to show cause why picketing at the site of the Pilgrim Furniture Company's factory project on Greenkill avenue should not be stopped.

Workmen employed at the Pilgrim plant on Teller street mean while are on strike. The order is not directed to picketing of the manufacturing plant on Teller street where the strike is in progress over a labor dispute. Picketing at that plant continued today.

There was no picketing at the Greenkill avenue site under a stipulation entered into Monday between the local's representatives and the management. That agreement was that there would be no picketing pending the court hearing Wednesday provided the owners did not work building crews overtime on the project.

Monday work was resumed at the Greenkill avenue building site for a time but the workmen later ceased operations.

Today there were a few iron workers on the job, some masons and laborers but the crane operator declined to operate the machinery used in placing the heavy steel framework.

DeWitt Quick, speaking for the local, this morning stated that the men considered the injunction proceeding an "invisible picket line" and for that reason the crane operator and other workmen declined to continue work. Progress was being made at the construction job, he stated, but the progress was "slow," he said. Active picketing was discontinued following the stipulation in court Monday.

Couple Clerk Busy

The month of May was another busy one for the county clerk. During May there were 282 mortgages recorded and there has been turned over to County Treasurer Jay W. Rifenburg the sum of $6,580.11 by County Clerk Robert Snyder on recording fees. This is the sum from mortgages on property wholly within a town. In addition there is some $7,500 received as mortgage tax on properties which lie in two or more townships and on which apportionment of the tax money must be made. For conduct of deeds and other documents the fees for May amounted to $2,321.

Hank Neighbors Blanks Stroudsburg With Three Hits, 4 to 0

Dodger Ace Fans 12 as He Records Sixth Straight

Hank Neighbors, the academic genius of the Kingston Dodgers, hurling corps, moved a step further toward North Atlantic League pitching supremacy last night with a gilt edged, three-hit 4 to 0 shutout over the Stroudsburg Poconos at municipal stadium.

Neighbors, who is just about tops in Duke Landgraf's circuit, despite superior ERA's of other fingers, embellished his 14-karat performance with a dozen strikeouts as he notched his sixth straight success without a setback.

The victory was Kingston's 22nd in 30 starts, although they had their league lead pared a half game when the Carbondale club swept a doubleheader from Peekskill. The Dodgers have a four game lead as they prepare to engage the Nyack Rocklands in a twilight-night doubleheader at the stadium tonight. First game is scheduled for 6:30 p. m.

Fans the Side

Neighbors fanned the side in the second and clipped the heart of Stroudsburg batting order for eight of his twelve whiffs. He got Warner, the cleanup batter, three times, the No. 5 man twice and Voice, in the sixth slot, three times. With a fair for the dramatic, the "Dodger" fanned the last two men in the ninth. Only one man advanced as far as second base and then not until the eighth. Neighbors issued three inconsequential passes.

Scherger on Rampage

Manager George Scherger cracked a double and two singles and drove in two runs to take batting honors, with Brian Kerr and Gerry Orleman each poking two safeties.

Kingston got to Starter Bob Wood for at least one hit in each of the first six innings but were able to pick up only single tallies in the second, third and fourth. Gerry Orleman's triple and a felder's choice accounted for a run in the second.

Kerr singled and Scherger doubled to right center for the second run as quick as that in the third. The skipper drove in Antonetz, who had walked, with his second hit in the fourth and that represented the Dodger scoring until the eighth when Kittos singled, moved up on a sacrifice and field's choice and scored on Kerr's fly to deep center.

Stroudsburg didn't get a man as far as second until the eighth when Kopsic got the third hit off

DODGER DOINGS—Note the change in starting time tonight, 6:30 instead of 7 p. m. . . . Chris Kittos, who played here last summer with the Brooklyn Dodgers, the World club made his debut at shortstop, replacing Dave Myers who was sold to Orleans of the Pony League. . . . Jim Williams played right field unaware of the fact that a one-way ticket to Sheboygan of the Wisconsin State League awaited him. . . . Ray Cutter, big right hander, has been given his unconditional release. . . . Kowalski and Wiley Williams, the No. 3 and No. 4 men are in a slump. . . . The Dodgers loaded the bases in the fifth but Big Rudy Antonetz fouled out for the third out. . . . Wiley Williams plucked Voice's foul loft on the running track in the seventh like he was reaching for a martini, which he doesn't. The game was the snappiest and cleanest of the season. . . . Tomorrow night is Ladies Night. . . . All ladies admitted to the grandstand upon payment of the federal tax.

Lesnevich to Fight Mauriello July 30

New York, June 10 (AP)—Gus Lesnevich, the light heavyweight champion who says he has no intention of invading heavyweight king Joe Louis' territory, will take on another heavyweight July 30 when he meets Tami Mauriello of the Bronx in a non-title ten-rounder at Ebbets Field.

In his last outing against a heavyweight contender, Lesnevich flattened Mello Bettina in 59 seconds of the first round of their Madison Square Garden ten rounder May 23. The Damon Runyon Cancer Fund will share in the profits of the show, Promoter Andy Neiderreiter said.

In the other National League games, the Braves, behind the one-hit pitching of Charlie (Red) Barrett, shut out the Chicago Cubs in a night game in Boston 2-0 and the St. Louis Cardinals divided a doubleheader with the Phillies in Philadelphia. The Red birds won the opener 4-2 but dropped the second 2-1 in 15 innings.

The New York Yankees blew a fine opportunity to narrow Detroit's American League leading margin of one and a half games when the Chicago White Sox overcame an 8-2 Yankee lead and won 9-8 in 10 innings.

The Tigers were soundly trounced by the Philadelphia Athletics in Detroit 11-3 and the Boston Red Sox defeated the Indians in a battle of home runs in Cleveland, 7-5. The Browns nipped the Washington Senators 1-0 in a night game in St. Louis.

Home Run Fiesta

With most of the crowd of 13,069 walking toward the exits, he Giants, apparently hopelessly beaten, trailing 8-1 in the last of the eighth, suddenly shelved starter Kirby Higbe, Edson Barrow, Hank Behrman, and Art Herring for eight hits and two walks, good for eight runs to take a 9-8 advantage. Cooper's first home run with one on gave the Giants the one-run margin.

Pittsburgh fought back with two in the top of the ninth to go ahead 10-9, but the Giant's came storming back with four in their half, Cooper's second circuit clutch with two aboard giving him five runs batted in for the day.

Chester Emile Cops Third Straight 54 Over Frank's

Chester Emile defeated Frank's Sport Shop, 5 to 4, for their third straight City League victory yesterday at the Athletic Field, in a contest in which both clubs were restricted to three hits.

Frank committed six errors and handed the undefeated league leaders five unearned runs, while scoring three in legitimate fashion. Unfortunately, baseball rules state that unearned runs also count.

Steltz and McElrath divided the Chester Emile pitching chores, while Owen Ten Broeck and Radtke shared the pitching. Frank's Ten Broeck added eight more strikeouts to his impressive total.

The six hits were scattered among six players, with J. Crosby's double the only extra base blow. . . . Umpire Johnny Prunial was back in harness after a week of illness. . . . Charlie Nof and Pat Senor, along with Joe Mahar and Jimmy Castle continued their riding of Paul Freer, the league statistician. . . . These kids are returning baseballs nicely. . . . In this respect, credit Louie "Chic" Provenzano with an assist. . . . He's giving away more baseballs than the league players are fouling off.

Papke Sees Kolarick as Winner

Noted Trainer Picks Own Boxer In Close Fight

Trainer Johnny Papke hopes to make it two outstanding victories for his Cleveland stable of boxers this week when Georgie Kolarick tangles with Tony Ponticello, Groversville middleweight in the main bout on B'nai B'rith card at the municipal auditorium, Thursday night.

Last night, Jimmy Bivins, his 183 pound professional star, outpointed Lee Q. Murray, 210, from South Norwalk, Conn., in a 10 round bout in Baltimore, Md.

"I think Kolarick should take Ponticello," opined Papke, former middleweight contender and one of the outstanding trainers in boxing, "because he's a rugged boy and a good puncher."

Papke, however, is not underrating Ponticello, who rocked his Bohemian brawler with some booming wallops on the last card here before a scalp wound forced him to give up in the third round. Referee Emmett Ryan stopped the punching duel which was a thriller as far as it went.

Ponticello Confident

Ponticello, insisted on a return match, and Thursday's skirmish is his request arrangement, which means he'll be ready for Kolarick and anxious to win.

In a supporting five rounder, Eddie Morton, Albany welterweight, who has done some brilliant battling at the auditorium, will oppose Johnny Maddox of Cleveland, a stablemate of Kolarick.

Another five will show Harold Morton, Albany lightweight against Cliff Carson of Cleveland, a boy who boxes on the same style as Chuck Wilkerson, the clever little bantamweight who defeated Georgie "Babyface" Decker.

Joe Ausanio, Kingston middleweight, will oppose Sid McDonald of Groversville in a five rounder. McDonald gave Tommy "Tiger" Davis a boxing lesson on the last night, and hopes to beat Ausanio. However, he may not be able to stand those triphammer rights of Joe's.

Preliminaries are being arranged with the names of the following boxers getting preference: Joe Penzato of New Paltz, Joe Taylor of Port Jervis, Dan Smith of Ponchockie and Frankie Bunce of Kingston.

Babe Is in 4th Round

Gulane, Scotland, June 10 (AP)—Mrs. Babe Didrikson Zaharias of Denver and Miss Ruth Woodward of Fall River, Mass., fought their way into the fourth round of the British Women's Amateur Golf Championship today as their fellow Americans—bored out in a third round match. Playing true to form, the highly favored Babe had little difficulty in polishing off Mrs. Val Reddan, former Irish champion, by a score of six and four.

Turnesa Is Given New York Welcome

New York, June 10 (AP)—Reminiscent of the days when the great Bobby Jones used to come home from his golf conquests abroad, New York gave a tumultuous welcome to "little Willie" Turnesa, young Westchester county golfer who brought back from England the prized British Amateur Championship Trophy.

Willie was greeted at the Queen Elizabeth's pier by his wife, his father, Michael, Sr., a former greenskeeper, and five of his six brothers—Phil, Frank, Joe, Mike and Doug—all pros at metropolitan district clubs. His older brother Jim was in St. Louis tuning up for the National Open.

A ticker-tape shower floated from Broadway buildings as Willie, accompanied by Dick Chapman of Pinehurst, N. C., whom he had beaten in the British finals at Carnoustie, Scotland, were driven to City Hall to be received by Mayor William O'Dwyer.

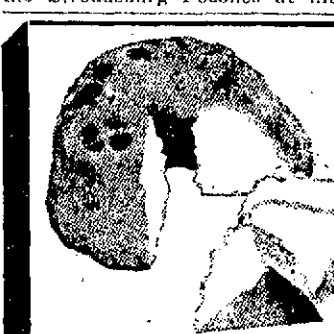

The City Hall reception also honored Chapman and the other members of the U. S. squad that wrested the Walker Cup from the British last month—Bud Ward, Smiley Quick, Skeie Riegel, Ted Bishop and Fred Kummer.

Said Willie afterwards: "It was more exhausting than the British championships, but it was wonderful—something I won't forget if I live to be 100."

Two Hurlers Have Perfect Records In North Atlantic

Two pitchers, Hank Neighbors of the Dodgers and Al Zikewitz, of Carbondale, maintained perfect pitching records in the North Atlantic League yesterday.

Neighbor's three-hit shutout of the Stroudsburg Poconos at municipal stadium was his sixth consecutive victory without a setback, while Zikewitz ran his string to five with a 4-0 shutout over the defending champions, Peekskill.

Lessick Shuts Out Saugerties Club, 9-0

A June vacation can be a wonderful thing if you are fortunate enough to kidnap a bride, but when it all adds up to five days of rain and a bumpy airplane ride, you are reminded pointedly of Joe Jacobs' immortal quip about "I should of stood in bed."

Our welcome to Grand Rapids, deep in the heart of what is often vaguely referred to as the "grass roots" section of the country consisted of two days of solid downpour. Just to convince us the folks out there have their hearts in the right place, the Chamber of Commerce conveniently arranged for sunlight on the getaway day.

You can marvel at the industry, conventions and commerce of Grand Rapids but don't get caught on the streets without a box lunch after midnight. If you do, you'll starve, as six furnished females discovered a week ago. Folks out there just don't believe in eating between meals and that 5:30 p. m. banquet is absolutely the last for the day.

From Saturday evening until Monday noon, the good burghers of Grand Rapids just pull in the sidewalks and retire to their favorite armchair to dream about the G.O.P. votes that will be piled up in next November's elections. If you are fortunate enough to possess one of those "cards," you can get lemonade or coke in the interim. If you want to see the world's greatest collection of BTOS, just visit the Pantlind Hotel any week day.

Notwithstanding Grand Rapids' rating as a commercial and industrial colossus of the midwest and its other salutary points, we'll still take Kingston. At least you can always get a beer and a hamburger after midnight. The W.L.B.C. gals feel that away about it, too. No more tourneys for G. R.

Kaye's 2400 series will be worth quite a piece of change, since 2100 was still in the money with a week remaining. . . . W.L.B.C. competition is tougher than that in the A.B.C. since the ladies move to a new alley after each game. . . . Had the Sports-women remained on their opening pair of drives they would have hit 2600. . . . Kingston's fair name is solidly established in the W.L.B.C. Kase Schatzel is a darling in the eyes of Emma Phaler and Jeanne Knappath, secretary and president respectively of the Women's International Bowling Congress. . . . The K. W. B. A. doesn't have to worry about its national public relations so long as Mrs. Schatzel is travelling the circuit. . . . Catherine Felthous, of Chicago, who won the 1946 all-events crown in the W.L.B.C. was a charming personality. . . . Duvall's injury was regrettable since she came at a time when she was bowling nicely and Kaye were rolling toward a big series. . . . bowling nicely and Kaye were rolling toward a big series. . . . 600 singles and 1500 all-events which is good enough in any tournament, especially the first big one. . . . We can wrap up the record books, paste away the clippings and look back on the 1946-47 bowling season as the greatest in the city's history. . . . Lon Kantowitz was a fine sponsor for a great team and everybody concerned is looking forward to the 1947-48 campaign.

ANENT BASEBALL: Kingston's four and a half game margin in the North Atlantic League is an indication that the Junior Dodgers are about to assert themselves as class club in the circuit. . . . Manager George Scherger is likely to make a couple more changes in the pitching department but generally speaking the club that will represent Kingston in the heat of the pennant race has been assembled. Tom Corrigan and Rudy Antonetz are solid behind the plate, while the infield of Wiley Williams, Scherger, Walt Kowalek and Dave Myers is tops in the league. Brian Kerr, Knobby Rosa and Gerry Orlowski form the No. 1 picket line in Duke Landgraf's circuit. . . . The Dodgers have had everything but crowds and they should soon start stemming toward the uptown park.

WHO'S CARRYING WHOM: Was a big question settled at Twaitskill Golf Club last week. . . . It seems that Jim Dwyer and Herman Gottfried have been pairing off against "Bud" Colton and Judge John M. Cassin and doing right. . . . An argument developed between Gottfried and Dwyer as to who was carrying whom. . . . The haranguing dragged and dragged until the inevitable solution was accomplished. . . . Gottfried and Dwyer had a singles match and down around the boardyard-section of the city these days there is no more argument about who is carry whom.

Frank's Clout Four Home Runs To Crush Subway No. 2, 28-2

Frank's Sport Shop set seasonal records in three departments in the City Softball League yesterday, crushing Subway Grill No. 2, 28 to 2, in a battle, ory in which they clouted four home runs, two doubles and a triple and collected 27 hits off two hurlers. . . . The victory was the sixth in a row for the undefeated sports-masters.

In other games, Subway Grill shut out Wor's, 5 to 0; Central Lunch nosed out Hercules, 8 to 7, in extra innings. Village First trounced Fullers, 10 to 5, while Hnn. Brith shined Jacobson's, 2 to 0.

Score 10 in 7th Powered by McGraw, who hammered four singles and a homer in six trips, Frank's scored in every inning, maximizing the contest with a 10-run barrage in the seventh. They clustered five runs in the first and fourth innings.

Hughes, who played in three positions, had a double and three singles for a perfect performance, while Bill Tierney, Maroney, Roe and pitcher Al Hunt each hit safely three times.

The four Frank's home runs were clouted by Maroney, Tierney, Tomaseskie and McGraw. In the midst of all the shelling, Al Hunt breezed along to his sixth straight win, yielding 10 scattered hits and piling a triple. Maxham, the Subway leadoff, went "4 for 4" for a perfect day.

Bigger Hurls Shutout Wait Bigler hurled a 4-hit shut-out for Subway Grill No. 2 against Wor's. Johnny Schatzel and Joe Faurz featured the 12-hit attack for Enright with home runs. Subway No. 1, 3-0; Wor's 1-2; Wor's 1-1; 0-0-0-0-0-0-4-2; Enright and Larkin; Enright and Tomaseskie.

Lester "Rex" Lessick, who is Coach Bill Burke's No. 2 Maroon fliker, was overcome by the shut-out fever yesterday and promptly achieved an artistic 9-0 whitewashing of Saugerties High in the 1947 finale at municipal stadium.

Clark Mains, who popularized the shutout at the Broadway institution, looked on approvingly as Lessick career-balled the upriver swingers into submission with four scattered hits. Not a Saugerties batter got past second base and young Lessick faced only 25 batters over the seven inning route. He fanned three.

Dulin Raps Homer Dick Dulin's home run with two aboard in the fifth, a robust 400-footer to deep right field, featured an otherwise drab game in which poor support shackled Marty Frelich, a capable Saugerties flinger. Frelich scored seven times in the fifth to break the game wide open. The Burkemans collected four singles in addition to Dulin's round tripper. The visitors conveniently obliged with a passed ball and outfield mull to help the cause.

Dulin, with two hits in four trips shared batting honors with Chris Lay, the round receiver who bashed a pair of run scoring singles. The Maroon picked up an unearned marker in the first with the grace of three Saugerties misuses and later developments proved that would have been enough.

First Complete Game Lessick never permitted more than one hit an inning and issued only one pass. It was his first complete game of the season. Dulin turned in the field, gent of the game in the second, spearing Lorezel's sharp line drive and doubling Cook off first base. . . . The shutout was the third in succession for the Kingston staff. . . . Duvall's injury was regrettable since she came at a time when she was bowling nicely and Kaye were rolling toward a big series. . . . 600 singles and 1500 all-events which is good enough in any tournament, especially the first big one. . . . ## Agriculture Agent Discusses Sprays For Use on Farms

In his efforts to aid local farmers and fruitgrowers in preserving their crops and orchards, Walt Baran, assistant county agricultural agent, lists the following effective sprays as measures to combat various detrimental agents affecting the progressive growth of plants and trees.

Grapes and vines should be given serious consideration at the present, said Baran, as black rot was severe last year in some sections in Ulster county, causing as high as 90 per cent of the crop to be lost in some vineyards.

The spray in this case should be applied just before the bloom, just after the bloom, and about two weeks later, he said. In some seasons, depending on climatic conditions and the forces of nature, a fourth application may be necessary, and this should be used about four weeks after the bloom.

The formula for the black rot spray consists of four pounds copper sulfate, four pounds spry lime, one pound resin fish oil soap or commercial sticker (at manufacturer's directions) with 100 gallons of water.

In instances where injury results with the aforementioned formula, Baran suggests a more effective formula for better control. This would consist of two pounds ferrous sulfate and a half pint of kerosene oil and 100 gallons of water.

Vines, he cautioned, should be sprayed thoroughly from both sides of the row. Lime should not be used with ferrous sulfate or kerosene.

Gooseberry Worm Dangerous
Gooseberry fruit worm is present in many current plantings, Baran said, and serious damage can result from this insect if it is not properly controlled. The injured berries show a reddish color and are being tied together with small webs spun by the insect. A spray combining this as also leaf spot and botrytis rot should be applied as soon as the worms begin to draw the berries together with a fine web.

In making this spray, three pounds each of copper sulfate, hydrated lime, and rotenone (4-5 per cent), with 100 gallons of water and spreader (optional), use according to manufacturer's directions, is needed.

Plums, Prunes Need Spraying
To control brown rot and leaf spot on plums and prunes, especially so during rainy seasons, the spray should be applied two to three weeks after shuck application.

This spray is made according to the following formula: 7-10 pounds of paste or 5-6 pounds dry wettable sulfur with 100 gallons of water.

Baran notes the following suggestions to further combat plant and fruit deteriorating agents:
If curculio is active in the orchard, two to two and one half pounds of lead and 16 pounds of lime should be added to the plum and prune formula.

If red mild is a problem, a formula consisting of one and one half gallons of summer oil Bordeaux mixture, four pounds of copper sulfate, four pounds of lime and 100 gallons of water should be used. This mixture also controls leaf spot and brown rot. No sulfur or D.D.T. residues should be present on the trees if oil is used. If it does exist one and one quarter pounds of D.D.T. in 100 gallons of water or a D-4 dust.

dent Roosevelt and other Allied leaders agreed that a special occupation currency would be used for the invasion of Europe and Germany. The Russians demanded that the United States turn over plates for this currency to them. This was refused at first but American officials later yielded.

"After the Russians obtained the plates, the invasion currency began to appear in the British and American zones in huge amounts. This indicated that the Russians were manufacturing it just as fast as they could get new plates. Some reports are that as much as $900,000,000 worth has been redeemed with American dollars."

"I am told that the Russians still have the plates to print it."

Motorist, 23, Dies From Bullet Fired By Hitch-Hiker

Media, Pa., June 10 (AP)—A 23-year-old motorist was shot to death at the wheel of his fast-moving automobile and a police official declared early today a hitch-hiker would be formally charged with the slaying.

Fred Jack, chief of Delaware county detectives, said that a man he identified as Daniel P. Taranow, 21, New York, had admitted orally that he shot Francis Devon, 23, of Oxford, Pa., because Devon refused to surrender the car.

Jack said he would charge Taranow with murder sometime during the day.

Devon, a brakeman employed by the Pennsylvania railroad, served in the army for 38 months and was a brother of Lt. Edward Devon, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's personal airplane pilot.

Jack said that Devon slumped dead in his 1947 sedan as it crashed through a pole a mile east of Media yesterday. The hitch-hiker, Jack added, leaped from the car, rolled down an embankment and fled.

It was not until five hours later that Taranow was captured in a secluded dell far from the scene of the shooting.

Figl issued an official denial of a statement by Ernest Fischer, one of four Communist members of the Austrian Parliament, saying that Figl had offered to resign if such action was necessary to effect greater participation in government affairs by the Communist party.

Fischer's statement was issued as a news release denying an Associated Press dispatch of June 7 in which he was quoted by an unnamed Austrian official as saying the Soviet Union never would sign an Austrian treaty as long as the present Austrian government was in power. Fischer declared he had informed Figl new national elections were necessary to "regain the confidence of the people" and secure Communist cooperation.

Figl was then, Fischer said, that Figl offered to resign, saying that there would be no elections in Austria before the spring of 1948. Figl did not discuss details in denying the report that he had offered to resign.

The last Austrian elections were held in 1945, when Figl's Peoples' party elected 35 members of parliament, the Socialists 76 and the Communists four, on the basis of seven per cent of the popular vote.

18 Manufacturers Visit Industrial Exhibit at School

Eighteen Kingston manufacturers visited the Industrial Arts Building at the Kingston High School yesterday afternoon, touring the various departments and eating lunch at the school's cafeteria.

The visit was arranged by E. P. Rochford, chairman of the Industrial Advisory Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. The group was welcomed by Arthur Laidlaw, superintendent of schools and conducted on the tour by Herbert Haden of the Industrial Arts Department. Principal Clarence Dunnin accompanied the party.

Walking through the various departments, the men were shown different items originated and perfected by the high school students, and expressed surprise at the equipment and condition of the items on display. Everything was shipshape and a credit to the initiative of the students.

A chuck for a lute was shown the visitors, one purchased by the school students and turned over to the U. S. Army during the war as a productive item, Kingston High being the only school to receive the distinction of working
